Notes From The Editor

No demonstrations this month as we prepare for Woodworks at Daventry on 1st & 2nd May at Daventry Leisure Centre, Lodge Road, Daventry. NN11 4FP. Free parking and free entry to the best woodturning show of the year!

We managed “Best in Show” last year, so please bring along your fruit for the club competition and your best pieces to make the stand look its best. We will set up from 5pm on Thursday, so help would be appreciated. Support during the show on the Friday or Saturday would also be very welcome.

Dalmann held an open day on Saturday April 11th. Les Thorne was the demonstrator. They have a great selection of timber. It was quite a trek to Upper Lambourn, RG17 8AB, but I picked up some very nice spalted Beech, which is my favourite timber. I’ve enclosed a few pictures.

Coombe Abbey Woodturners were at the Daffodil Festival at Monks Kirby on Sunday 12th April. Some nice sunshine brightened the day but heavy rain at 3pm persuaded most people to go home before the official 4pm finish. I’ve included a few photos.

I’m on holiday now, for just over a week. Keep the emails coming but I won’t be replying until the end of the month.
